Our Semi-Annual Sale of Notions and Dressmakers' Needs

It Will Commence Today and Continue Throughout the Week

HERE it is again! Our Great Big Sale of Small Things at Little Prices. These sales are six months apart, and when they do happen they amount to something. Past experience has taught us how to conduct this sale better this year than ever before-how to provide the proper quantities, the most wanted sizes. numbers, colors, etc., how to display the goods and lay them out so that buying may be done most expeditiously and comfortably.

WE do not pick a handful of well-known goods and make conspicuous reductions on them purely for effect. We make a straight and liberal reduction in price on every line and every item mentioned. And remember—the sale will last all week-there will be plenty of goods for everyone. If you can't come today, come Tuesday or Wednesday, or any day up to and including Saturday, April 24th—but for your own benefit, at least-Come!

TO appreciate the savings you must read every item in this advertisement. We would suggest that you cut it out and read it at your leisure. AIL Orders will be carefully filled. Out-of-town customers will receive prompt service through the Parcels Post.

Reuter of Westerly; a brother, Frank H. Lewis of Minneapolis, and two sisters, Mrs. Will L. Stearns and Mrs. Thomas Potter, both of Norwich. John H. Hoxie of Boston is the Hugh J. Marshall, while at work under a motor boat Sunday morning, was pinned to the ground when the boat slipped from the temporary ways and fell on him. With him at the time was Arthur Crumb, who summoned assistance and resourced Mr. Marshall in an unconscious condition. Dr. Johnson was summoned and the Dr. Johnson was summoned and the injured man was taken to his home. It is feared he has been injured internally and perhaps fatally. His skull is fractured, a rib is broken and his head cut and bruised. pleasant evening.
